WOODS HOLE FILM FESTIVAL

The Woods Hole Film Festival, now in its 33rd year, is one of the longest-running film festivals in New England. The Festival offers locals, summer residents, and visitors alike the opportunity to see some of the best independent film and filmmakers. The Festival has been recognized by industry media and filmmakers as one of the top film festivals in the world, named in 2023 as one of the 20 Great Film Festivals in a Vacation Destination by MovieMaker Magazine and many Festival alumni are Oscar Nominees and recipients.

The village of Woods Hole is a destination for summer visitors and scientific researchers, making for one of the most dynamic and sophisticated audiences around. In addition to the summer event, the Festival also presents screening events on a bi-weekly basis in collaboration with local businesses and venues, maintaining a consistent year-round presence in the community. We send regular e-mail updates to our list of more than 8,000 at least twice monthly. Our personal interaction with audiences and filmmakers is one of the qualities that sets us apart from many other festivals. Our sponsors recognize the unique environment the Woods Hole Film Festival creates as an opportunity to showcase their brand in a way no others can.

By supporting the Woods Hole Film Festival through sponsorship and advertising you will be presenting your brand to a discerning and diverse audience, while helping us to fulfill the mission of supporting emerging independent filmmakers and bringing the best of the next generation of filmmakers to the audiences of Cape Cod and beyond.

"In this, our fifth year supporting the Woods Hole Film Festival, we sponsored the incredible film THE WEIGHT OF WATER; about Erik Weißenmayer who, though totally blind, solo kayaked the length of the Grand Canyon. Such courage. Such drive. His story inspires us all to greater achievements. This is just one of the 170 films shown in 2019. It's amazing that such a wide-reaching festival takes place in our sometimes sleepy village by the sea. May it always be so."

I sponsor the Wood Hole Film Festival to support their dedication to the arts and year-round commitment to our community. Between the films, music, and hanging out with like-minded people in beautiful Woods Hole, the summer Film Festival is my favorite week of the year.
